LESSONS FROM LOCKDOWN

REV. MIKE TRINIDAD

This past week, as the day was about to end, a sense of exasperation enveloped me about the current lockdown situation. Amidst this grim mindset, I cried out to God, "Another day, Lord, almost 4 months into the lockdown! How much longer will we have to endure this, Lord?" I'm sure many of you can identify with the frustration I felt having to go through each day, going through the motions of the daily established routine, while locked down, with limited activity and knowledge of what is going on outside the confines of our home.

I am so glad that while the Lord allowed me to remain in this feeling of exasperation for a little while, He also gave me the opportunity to be roused from the heaviness I felt in my mind and heart when he used the exhortation of Pastor Bobot Andalis to our CWC team on the thanksgiving psalms, (specifically Psalm 150), to remind me that I need to always be in a posture of thanksgiving to God, no matter my circumstances.

The concluding verse reads, "LET EVERYTHING THAT HAS BREATH PRAISE THE LORD! PRAISE THE LORD!" Indeed, that should be the cry of our hearts each day to praise God for His goodness, His faithfulness, His tender mercies and His lovingkindness! Even in the midst of whatever crisis or difficulties we may go through in life, thanksgiving should be foremost in our hearts and minds!

By not focusing on what we perceive as negative things that are happening, but, rather, on the goodness and faithfulness of God amidst the pandemic, we will see the silver lining in all that we go through. Allow me to share two lessons from my own personal experiences -

GROW DEEP IN GOD - the lockdown has given me valuable time to grow deeper in the study of His Word and draw lessons that speak to me amidst the chaos going on around me. I am so thankful that our church has given us various opportunities to continue to be connected to God and His Word through the various social media platforms that have allowed us to continue our regular weekly worship service, daily devotional by Pastor Lito, and the many webinars that are timely and relevant for the present time.

Many have lost jobs and the means to support their families. And many more risk being laid off as many companies reel from the contagion effects of a failing economy. Many relationships continue to suffer as couples are forced to contend with each other for an extended period - 24/7 for almost four months!

GROW YOUR LOVE FOR FAMILY - while we may have taken them for granted in the past as we were too deeply concerned with work and ministry, at the end of the day, you will come home to your family. God has blessed you with family to be with you through thick and thin, and the lockdown period has allowed me to develop a deeper bond with my wife and daughters.

My prayer is that we would not let the current crisis to be defined by the struggles and difficulties we've had to face, but, let it deepen our resolve to love God more and appreciate our families even more!

A blessed Sunday, everyone! Let everything that has breath praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
- Psalm 150:6 ✠
