WHERE TO FIND PERSPECTIVE IN UNCERTAIN TIMES

ELDER RAYMUND SANCHEZ | HEBREWS 10:35-36

Uncertain times have a way of turning things upside down, it shakes the foundation of our lives, as a result, we begin to question ourselves and doubt the future. It reveals where we have laid our trust, where our confidence rests, and it also tests the strength of that confidence. As believers our confidence must rest in God and God alone.

The Hebrews were undergoing severe persecution, trials and difficulties, the temptation to escape their persecution by turning their back on their faith and denying Christ was very strong, so the encouragement of the apostle Paul was to endure, to stay strong and hang on to their faith. He reminded them that they had sacrificed so much and shed too many tears, that they must not capitulate.

Furthermore, there was a great reward that would accrue to them and that they had come so close. The key was in where their confidence resided. That's what we learn from these two very powerful verses in the book of Hebrews, that's what we are going to focus on today. ✱
