THE LORD WHO CARES

REV. BOBOT ANDALIS | PSALM 33:1-22

Psalm 33 reminds us of God's loving care. This Psalm assures us of one thing: "Whatever situations we are in, whether we are happy or sad, our response to our situations should never be affected - that we must worship, praise and be thankful to God completely because He cares for us - He really cares for you and me!"

Psalm 33 is a praise psalm. Verses 1-3 featured a call to praise God. Verses 4-19 gave the reasons why we should praise the Lord. And then verses 20-22 concludes with a declaration that as we wait upon God's deliverance, we need to trust and put our hope in God, knowing His steadfast love will be upon us all the way until the end.

My prayer for each one of us is that in every circumstance, we may always praise and worship God because of who He is for the following reasons:

The Lord is righteous (vv. 1-7). The Psalmist exhorted the "righteous" to praise Him (vv. 1-3). Also, the Psalmist elaborated on reasons why the upright should praise Him (vv. 4-5) - because of the purity of His Word (vv. 4-5) and the power of His Word (vv. 6-7).

The Lord is full of wisdom (vv. 8-12). God's people should give reverence to Him and His Word (vv. 8-9) - to seek direction from Him and His Word (vv. 10-12).

The Lord Cares (vv. 13-19). He sees all His people (vv. 13-15). In the midst of danger, He saved them (vv. 16-17). And, He seeks those whose hope is in His steadfast love (vv. 18-19).

The Lord Comforts (vv. 20-22). When His people are uncertain of their future, He secures them. He is their help, their shield in every aspect of the present (vv. 20-21). The Lord's steadfast love is their sure hope for the future (v. 22).

God's people should always seek God's Help constantly (v. 12), by submitting to God's Word consistently (vv. 10-11). They should learn to embrace God's wisdom confidently (vv. 13-15) so they can be secured by God's love continually (v. 18, 22).

Because of His steadfast love, we can always experience His care. ✱
