WORSHIP THROUGH OBEDIENCE

PASTOR VINCE SYYAP | PSALM 81

What a beautiful sight it is to see God's people come and meet to worship Him. As we worship, we remember who God is and the things that He has done in our lives.

Holy Week is just around the corner, a time given for us to commemorate how our Lord Jesus Christ sacrificed His own life as a payment for our sins. We are blessed to be recipients of the greatest act of love this world has ever seen. How the one and only Son of God willingly went through one of the most painful and humiliating punishments ever. How do we respond to such love?

In Psalm 81, we are shown how to worship God joyfully with all our heart, body, and soul. We worship because we are grateful. When we realize how God has delivered us several times in the past from different kinds of problems, we get a glimpse of just how awesome His love for us truly is. Sadly, just like the Israelites, we easily forget and resort back to our stubborn ways instead of being obedient to God.

The Israelites had been slaves in Egypt and had called out to God many times, and many times God rescued them. But their hearts were stubborn as they insisted on their sinful ways. At the difficult points of their journey, they were quick to want to go back to slavery just because they didn't want to go through the difficulty of enduring God's plan for them. They doubted the Lord despite the miracles they had experienced. They feared the Egyptians more than they feared God. They went through the vicious cycle of committing sin, praying for relief, being delivered then sinning again.

Many of us have made mistakes, too, that may be too many to count, fallen to temptation and suffered its consequences. It is not too late to repent and turn to God He will rescue and deliver us. When we learn to totally surrender our lives to God, His plan will prevail. Then, we will experience the greatest joy and satisfaction that only God can provide. Our obedience to Him will be a living testimony of true worship.*
