ABIDING IN GOD'S PRESENCE

REV. MARK MAGANGAT | PSALM 91

Psalm 91 is quite a famous psalm and there are a few contemporary songs that have been written about it. It starts off with the psalmist talking about a particular person who has a relationship with God. This person is dwelling in the trustworthy presence of God (vv. 1-2). In the presence of God, we get protection.

In this psalm, we see different aspects of God's protection. Just like any other psalm, the vividness of the description of the psalmist evokes emotions for those who read it. God's protection from hidden traps or dangers that may be lying in wait for people starts off the aspects that we can see in this Psalm (v. 3). This protection is not just a protection that makes us feel safe like a mother hen protects its chicks but also is comprehensive and strong like a shield and buckler (v. 4). This protection is not just a strong one, but also is a continuous one. Whatever time of day, and whatever the danger, God's protection will still be there (v. 5). This kind of protection evokes in us this courage that comes from knowing that God protects us always. There is nothing to fear with God, even in the situations around us that seem hopeless or full of danger, God protects us from these (vv. 7-8). The psalmist then repeats that for those who have made the Lord their dwelling place, God's protection also supports and lifts up (vv. 9-12). This support from God also assures us of victory over dangers and troubles represented by the young lion and the serpent (v. 13).

The last section is a promise from the Lord to those who hold fast to Him. The one speaking now is God himself and He says that He will deliver, protect, answer, be with, rescue, honor, satisfy, and save that person (vv. 14-16). That is an amazing promise from the Lord because what He says, we can be sure that it will surely come to pass!

So, as we continue to abide in God's presence, may we likewise continue to experience His protection and rest assured in His promise that He will always be with us! God Bless us all! ✨
